

Introduction of Keynote Speakers Group

The Keynote Speakers group, as one of the ACEE groups, consists of a large number of excellent experts. We seek your assistance as one of Keynote Speaker for ACEE conferences. Keynote Speakers can attend conference either on-site or online. We offer many benefits below for our Keynote Speakers.

Benefits as a Keynote Speaker:

ACEE is committed to promoting and facilitating academic exchange and dissemination. Here are some of the benefits you can enjoy as a Keynote Speaker:

1. Stay up to date with the latest developments in your field,
2. Become part of ACEE conference community,
3. Receive an outstanding keynote speaker award, including USD500 cash prize and an electronic certificate. Keynote speaker can attend conference either on-site or remote video speech.
4. Get free conference registration, paper publication, catering and accommodation, excluding transportation.

Keynote Speaker's requirements:

Keynote speakers are usually given 30-40 minutes to speech. The speech topics need to be relevant to ACEE conferences' topics. The preferable qualities of well-versed keynote speakers include: fluent English language, highly regarded oratory skills, intelligence and background on the topic, ability to engage an audience, creativity, a good sense of humor, strong use of visuals or audio, and openness for sharing personal experiences. Keynote speakers can attend conference either in person or remote video speech.

How to Join the Keynote Speakers Group and start earning USD500 per speech?
